Kingston Diocesan Council of

The Catholic Women's League of Canada

Dear Sisters in the League,

It is with a joyful heart that I extend this invitation to attend the 91st Annual Convention of the Kingston Diocesan Council of The Catholic Women's League of Canada, which will be held on Saturday, May 4th and Sunday, May 5th, 2013 at the Ambassador Conference Resort, Kingston.

As this convention is occurring during the Year of Faith, we have the opportunity to fulfill its purpose as stated by Pope Benedict XVI, "to arouse in every believer the aspiration to profess the faith in fullness with renewed conviction, with confidence and hope." We will deepen our faith through the prayer services, the liturgies and especially through the Holy Eucharist.

We look forward to our invited presenters who will reflect upon the convention theme, We Have Seen the Lord - As People of Faith. They will also be reflecting upon the Year of Faith and the New Evangelization.

Father Thomas Lynch, the National Director for Priests for Life Canada, has been directly involved in advocating for the rights of individuals for over thirty years. His extensive knowledge and experience has made him a popular advocate, lecturer and teacher in the area of family life.

Dr. Josephine Lombardi, PhD, theologian, author and mother of four was enthusiastically received at the Ontario Provincial Convention held here in Kingston last July.

Eleanor Glenn is known to most of you over the last six years as the creator and performer of the one woman stage play "The Servant At The Supper" which she performed at the 50th International Eucharistic Congress in Dublin. Now, inspired by this Year of Faith, Eleanor has written two literary works: God's Manual for Servant Ministry and Faith Artistry. Her literary presentation at the convention will support the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops in their encouragement of "creative approaches to the New Evangelization."

We welcome Pauline Krupa, Ontario Provincial Council First Vice President and Communications Chairperson to this convention.

The presentations promise to be motivational, interactive and informative.

In preparation for the 91st Convention, the host council, St. Patrick's, Napanee, has involved their parish community, their sponsored refugee family and the community at large through their various activities.

We invite you to take the time to fully embrace this opportunity to participate with your League sisters.

May the Holy Spirit and Our Lady of Good Counsel continue to guide our efforts for God and Canada.

Dear Sisters of the League,

I am pleased to extend this invitation to our 91st Annual Convention in my role as Spiritual Advisor of the Kingston Diocesan Council.

In her accompanying letter, President Kathy Huffman describes the well-prepared program that has been shaped to develop the theme of the Convention, "We Have Seen the Lord – as People of Faith."

When Pope Benedict XVI invited us to enter into this Year of Faith, he used the image of a door that opens the way to the journey of a lifetime:

"The "door of faith" (Acts 14:27) is always open for us, ushering us into the life of communion with God and offering entry into his Church. It is possible to cross that threshold when the word of God is proclaimed and the heart allows itself to be shaped by transforming grace. To enter through that door is to set out on a journey that lasts a lifetime."

This year's Annual Convention promises to be an important moment in our journey as individuals and as members of the League. I invite you to enter "through the door" of the Ambassador Conference Resort on May 4 & 5 with an eagerness to experience more fully the shared treasure of the Catholic faith, and with a desire to share that faith ever more effectively to others.

The message for the Church's World Communications Day, celebrated on the Sunday following our convention, touches upon the same reality:

"For those who have accepted the gift of faith with an open heart, the most radical response to mankind's questions about love, truth and the meaning of life are found in the person of Jesus Christ. We need to trust in the fact that the basic human desire to love and to be loved, and to find meaning and truth – a desire which God himself has placed in the heart of every man and woman – keeps our contemporaries ever open to what Blessed Cardinal Newman called the "kindly light" of faith."

I continue to be impressed by the faith, creativity, collaborative and joyful spirit - and hard work - of the Diocesan Council Executive and the Council of St. Patrick's Parish, Napanee as they prepare the way for us to come together for this important event.

May the Holy Spirit and Our Lady of Good Counsel make it possible for many of us to participate in this 91st Annual Convention.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Father Brian McNally

Diocesan Spiritual Advisor

Dear Ladies of The Catholic Women's League,

No one knows better, all that The Catholic Women's League contributes to the running of the parish, but you the ladies that make it happen. The women of The Catholic Women's League are part of the heart beat of the parish, and these ladies are all dedicated to serving God in all that they do.

Our Napanee Catholic Women's League Council is very active and supportive in our parish, school and community as well. They have been preparing for this year's 91st Convention with vigor since they were blessed with the privilege of being Host Council. There have been countless meetings and fundraisers all to make sure that you will enjoy a memorable convention in May.

Fr. Brian McNally, Diocesan Spiritual Advisor of The Catholic Women's League, the members of the Kingston Diocesan Executive, the 2013 CWL Convention Committee and I would like to extend a warm invitation to all the ladies of the CWL to this 91st Convention on May 4-5 in Kingston, Ontario.

Come and join the women of The Catholic Women's League as they renew your spirit with lots of fun and friendship in their annual celebration of their life together in Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Marek Chochrek
Spiritual Advisor
St. Patrick's CWL, Napanee

HOST COUNCIL

St. Patrick's, Napanee

Dear Sisters in the League,

It is an honour, on behalf of St. Patrick's Council, Napanee, to invite you to attend the 91st Annual Kingston Diocesan Convention of The Catholic Women's League to be held at the Ambassador Conference Resort in Kingston, on May 4th and 5th, 2013. The National Theme "We Have Seen the Lord" and the Provincial Theme "As People of Faith" seem most fitting for The Year of the Faith.

Registration will take place on Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m. in the Lisbon Room. Following the opening Mass, registration will be in the hall outside the West Ballroom doors. The Prayer Room will be located in the Lisbon Room. We hope you find time to visit the Prayer Room to relax, pray and fill out your petitions to be presented at Sunday's mass.

We encourage everyone to join us for lunch where there will be a unique presentation by a refugee family from Napanee who have been sponsored by two Napanee churches – St. Mary Magdalene Anglican Parish and St. Patrick's Parish. For the past seven years, the two parishes have worked together to fund raise and now reap the joys of having a great family safe in Napanee. You will be inspired by The Kashira Family story and hear their Original, Traditional and Sacred Congolese Music. This musical experience will be very enjoyable and up-lifting. It is the first time a refugee family has entertained at our Diocesan Convention.

On Saturday evening following dinner, there will be more entertainment. Peter Lovett and Dick Miller are stalwarts in the local theatre scene. They have been involved in a number of shows at the Lennox Community Theatre and theatres in the Greater Kingston area. They are both well known for their dynamic, yet somewhat...untraditional, roles in dramas, musicals and pantomimes. Performing, writing and producing quality and hilarious short skits is their claim to fame and you will no doubt be in stitches when you see what these two are willing to do!

We would hope that many ladies will find the call and time to be present at this convention.

The deadline for the Meals and Registration forms is Monday, March 18, 2013. All cheques are to be made payable to "St. Patrick's Convention 2013". Please use the Detailed Attendance and Meal Order form to submit the names of your Council President and all Council members attending the Convention. Indicate which days they will attend and what meals they order. Please identify and print clearly name and title, eg. Life Member, Past Diocesan President, etc. The information will be used for name tags and seating plan. Also please remember to include the name (or names) of your Council's Spiritual Advisor and any retired priest and deacon who is part of your parish or perhaps a priest who has a close connection to your parish and would like to attend the banquet. Along with the priests' names, please total the number of dinners on the Summary Meal Order & Payment form and include the total payment with your cheque for meals.

Remember, you must make reservations for your rooms by calling The Ambassador Conference Resort. Please refer to the bottom of the Summary Meal Order & Payment Form for the information regarding reservations.

As the members of St. Patrick's Council strive to make this a fun-filled, hospitable and enjoyable convention, we extend a very warm invitation to all of you to attend the 91st Convention.

Please feel free to contact us with any concerns or questions.

PROVINCIAL AND DIOCESAN VOLUNTARY DONATIONS

PROVINCIAL VOLUNTARY FUND

- Bishop Bernard F. Pappin Memorial Bursary Fund

Bishop Pappin was the Provincial Spiritual Advisor and died suddenly while in office. The Provincial Executive established this fund in his memory, and it is used annually to financially assist seminarians in Ontario.

DIOCESAN VOLUNTARY FUND

- HOPE Fund

This unique diocesan project was the inspiration of Theresa Mangan, and Lillian O'Connor with encouragement from Father Boyle, then Diocesan Spiritual Advisor, with input from Carmel Foster. It was established as a project of love and concern for our neighbour.

The Hope Fund has tended to give consideration to applications that relate to family or individual situations. However, non-funded groups that are struggling to provide a better community environment are not necessarily prohibited from receiving a 'ray of hope.'

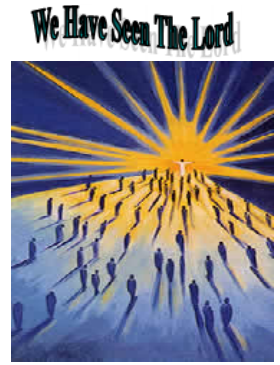

Parish councils are encouraged to make an annual donation to the Hope Fund and to submit the name of potential recipients along with a brief summary of the reason for submitting the name(s). The application form should be returned to the diocesan president as per the instructions on the bottom of the form.

To make a donation to the HOPE Fund, please use the REMITTANCE FORM for Provincial and Diocesan Voluntary Donations with a cheque payable to The Catholic Women's League of Canada and submit by April 1st, 2013 to:

- Coady International Institute – of St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N.S., was founded by Dr. Moses Coady who gave leadership to the Antigonish Movement which promotes the ideal that by learning and working together, men and women become “masters of their own destinies.” Coady offers a six month diploma program designed for leaders engaged in the development of people-based organizations in developing countries. The students, ranging in age from 25 to 45, are persons employed with public and private sector organizations engaged in human and international development. All students sign a commitment to return to their country of origin upon completion of the program and are required to undertake a Diploma Study Project that relates the students’ work at home to Coady’s formal training.
- Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace – established in 1967, is Canada’s official Catholic overseas development organization launched by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. Development & Peace has helped support projects such as grassroots community development, literacy programs, mother and child health care, skills training, agricultural programs and emergency relief. Development & Peace also supports educational programs, helping make Canadians more aware of the problems and goals of people in developing countries. Development & Peace’s primary source of funds is the yearly “Share-Lent” campaign, Canadian International Development Agency and donations from individuals and groups. Since 1969, the League has supported women’s projects in developing countries funded by Development & Peace through the “1% Program.” Brochures are available free of charge from national office.
- CWL Mission Partners Fund – Catholic Missions In Canada (CMIC) raises funds to provide missionaries with the tools they need to catechize throughout 24 Mission dioceses found within Canada. CWL Mission Partners, in conjunction with the League, supports six religious education programs.
- MaterCare International Inc. will be assisted by donations received from members and councils of The Catholic Women’s League of Canada until December 31, 2013. MaterCare supports the development of a birth trauma centre in Isiolo, Kenya (Africa), and the training of medical professionals to deal with a preventable medical condition, obstetric fistula.
