GUIDELINES

Diocesan Presidents

Responsibilities

- Submit an updated contact list of diocesan officers by June 15 to the administrative assistant.
- Read and process all directives and material received. Pass material along to appropriate chairpersons.
- Contact the provincial president or chairperson concerned if you need clarification or additional information.
- Carbon copy (cc) to the provincial president all letters written to national. This guideline must be strictly followed.
- Send requests for provincial facilitators, workshop leaders, etc. at any level to the provincial president for authorization. The provincial president will then forward said request to the president-elect/organization chairperson for implementation.
- Send subsidy requests from the National Development Fund to the provincial president for authorization before being sent to national.
- Send subsidy requests from the Provincial Development Fund to the provincial president for authorization. The provincial president will reply, then forward the approved request to the president-elect and treasurer for action.
- Submit expense sheets within one month of meetings.
- Report on business transacted at the provincial meeting to the diocesan executive.
- Submit profile electronically for website and newsletter by August 31.

Meetings

As a member of the provincial executive attendance is required at:

- two provincial executive meetings — Fall and Winter
- pre and post-convention meetings
- Ontario Provincial Convention in July

Reports

Reports at Meetings

- Prepare a written and oral report for the Fall and Winter executive meetings and email to the provincial president three weeks prior to the meeting. Keep a copy for your files.
- The provincial president then forwards approved reports to the administrative assistant two weeks prior to the meeting.
- Email a point form summary of the report to the recording secretary for the minutes at least five days before the meeting. The summary is not to exceed 15 typewritten lines. A form will be provided.

Reports at Convention Business Sessions

- Prepare an oral report to highlight a special event or project of your diocesan council. Report on future plans or direction that you hope to take. Additional direction may be given by the president.
- Observe the time allowed for oral reports.
- Make two copies of your oral report, one for the provincial president and one for your file.
- E-mail a point form summary of the report five days before the convention to the recording secretary for the minutes. The summary is not to exceed 15 typewritten lines. A form will be provided.
- E-mail your convention oral report within two weeks after the convention to the communications chair for inclusion on the website.

Annual Report

- Observe the deadlines set by the provincial organization chairperson.
- Following the directions given, prepare and submit a president's report of the activities at the diocesan level and an overview of the status of the League in your diocese. This should not be a repetition or summary of the parish reports. Additional direction may be given by provincial organization chairperson. Email one copy to the organization chairperson, one to the president and keep one in your files.

Conventions

Diocesan

- An invitation is issued to the provincial president no later than the fall executive meeting to attend each diocesan convention or to send a representative from provincial council.
- Provincial council is responsible for all convention expenses for the provincial representative. This is now paid initially by the host council, who will be reimbursed upon submission of the appropriate forms.
- The host diocese will provide the representative with the appropriate paperwork.

- The representative shall complete the paperwork (respecting deadlines) and send it to the diocesan convention committee.
- The provincial representative will bring greetings from provincial council and the provincial spiritual advisor and a president's report. If possible, she will be part of your program by giving a talk or a workshop. Advise the provincial representative as to what her contribution will be, prior to your convention, so that she is well prepared to participate.
- Assign a member to greet the representative and look after her needs. Confirm travel method, arrival and departure times with this representative.

Provincial

- Each diocese is entitled to be represented at the provincial convention by one voting delegate (the diocesan president or designate) and two accredited delegates.
- Registration, meals and credential forms for voting delegates (diocesan presidents) will be completed at the winter meeting and given to the treasurer who will remit forms and payment to the host convention committee.
- Credential forms shall be submitted by the diocesan secretary after the diocesan convention once they have been signed by the diocesan president and secretary.
- Booking shared accommodations shall be done by the provincial treasurer. Notify the provincial treasurer of your roommate's name.
- Convention information and forms are found on the provincial website.
- Voting cards for all delegates are to be picked up at the registration desk.
- Travel costs may be submitted before, during or after the convention.

National

- Each diocesan council may send two accredited delegates to the national convention. Credential cards are obtained from the provincial president or her designate at the diocesan convention and must be submitted to national office after being signed by the diocesan president and secretary. Upon presentation of the duplicate copy of the credential at the time of registration, the delegate may pick up her voting card.
- When the national convention is in Ontario, claims for expenses of the diocesan president or her representatives may be submitted to the provincial treasurer.

End of Term

At the end of your term as diocesan president your provincial file shall be put in order and turned over to the incoming president as soon as possible.

Prepare an index of your files.

This file should include:

- Invite speakers, panelists, etc. for the convention programs. Confirm two weeks prior to the convention.
- Prepare content for convention program booklet and banquet program and submit to the convention chairperson by the agreed deadline.
- Following the convention, have thank-you letters written to speakers, guests, dignitaries and others who took part.
- Ensure that the hosting council has prepared and forwarded all reports as requested, by August 31. If not received, follow up as necessary. Review and keep one binder. Present another copy plus the Provincial Convention Responsibility Chart to the hosting council at the October meeting.
- Present The Provincial Convention Guide to the diocesan president once an invitation, to host, has been accepted. Ensure that she and convention chairs have an updated copy.
- Either the president or president-elect should view and approve the convention site before any contract is signed.

National

- Send signed credential cards to national office and complete registration for provincial delegates and spiritual advisor immediately after the post convention meeting.
- Attend pre-convention, post-convention meetings and convention sessions as Ontario voting delegate.
- Prepare an oral report for the national convention business session as requested by national. Make one copy for your file and one to read. Email one to national office and provincial communications chair for inclusion in the online newsletter.

End of Term

- In the fall of the second year of the term, appoint a nominations and elections committee consisting of the immediate past president as the chairperson and two other committee members. A recording secretary for the elections will be appointed at the provincial convention.
- In January of the second year of the term, write to the ordinary of the president-elect's diocese to request that he accept the spiritual advisor's role during her term. If there is more than one bishop in the diocese he may name an auxiliary bishop.
- When notified of the new spiritual advisor, send him the convention agenda and information regarding his attendance at the banquet, closing mass and installation, closing luncheon and post-convention meeting. Request his arrival/departure time and ensure that the treasurer books his room, tickets, etc.
- Write follow-up letters to government or others regarding the resolved clauses of the resolutions passed at convention.
- Write appreciation cards and messages as required.
- See that all officers have turned over files to their successors by July 31, the treasurer by August 31.

Recording Secretary

Refer to Article Part XI – Section 4 and 9 (a), Constitution & Bylaws; Ontario Provincial Council Manual of Policy & Procedure; Ontario Provincial Council Guidelines and Ontario Provincial Convention Guide

Responsibilities

- In consultation with the provincial president, provide a list of names for appointment to the minutes review committees.
- Establish minutes review committees for executive meetings and convention.
- Prepare and send motions from each meeting to all members of the provincial executive within two weeks after the meeting.
- Motions dealing with financial items are numbered in red, i.e. 2011.09.30 – 05
- Motions dealing with changes to P&P, Guidelines, Convention Guide are numbered in red, i.e. 2011.09.30 – 06 with one of the following notations in red (policy change) (guidelines change) (convention guide change).
- Draft accurate minutes of the business conducted at all meetings of the Ontario Provincial Council.
- Prepare a first draft of the minutes and send to the minutes review committee and president for review within one month after the meeting and/or the provincial convention.
- Make necessary corrections or changes and prepare and send the second draft to the executive. Send an email requesting that all errors or omissions be submitted in writing within two weeks. Retain two copies: one personal, one for files.
- Distribute minutes at least 30 days prior to the next meeting to:
 - president
 - provincial officers
 - diocesan presidents
 - spiritual advisor
- Email a copy of the convention minutes (general business sessions only) to the administrative assistant for mailing to life members who attended the convention and requested minutes in time for the February mailing.
- Be a member of the administration committee.
- Take notes at the administration meeting to prepare the report for the executive meeting which follows.
- Send to officers and spiritual advisor the agendas for all meetings in a timely manner.
- In consultation with the president, prepare the Notice of Meeting for the fall and winter meetings, and the pre-convention meeting. Email to officers and spiritual advisor, along with a motion form and summary of written report form.
- Keep one copy of the official signed minutes in the Official Minutes Book. At the end of the term, minutes from the immediate past term are kept in the Official Minutes Book and any other minutes are turned over to the historian for the archives.

- Keep all motions in a separate Motion Book, numbering them in sequence beginning with - 01 for each meeting (example 2013.10.05 – 01)
- Append to the convention minutes:
 - reports of officers, diocesan presidents and special committees

3. Eligible members must return by Xpresspost no later than February 15 or hand delivered at the winter executive meeting:
 - a passport photo
 - acceptance letter
 - resume form

4. When replies are received from eligible members, prepare the acceptance list, using only the names of those successfully screened for positions identified as high trust along with all names of those accepting to stand for all other positions.
5. Send the acceptance list and resumes to the diocesan presidents by April 1st along with a nomination form and letter of instructions. This confidential information must be sent by mail and/or email and refer diocesan presidents to the privacy policy table (P&P A1.6.2-08) for handling.
6. Following the due date for the receipt of all application forms the chairperson will:
 - Prepare the official nomination form (14 copies). Ensure that each copy bears the official seal.
 - Request the return of the completed nomination form as soon as possible following the diocesan election.
 - Write a letter of acknowledgement to those willing to accept nomination. Include a copy of the acceptance list.
7. Immediately following the return of the nomination forms:
 - Write a letter of acknowledgement to those willing to accept nomination. Include a copy of the acceptance list.
 - Immediately following the return of the nomination forms, prepare a list of the names of the candidates for each office.
 - Notify the candidates by letter of the offices for which they have been nominated. No information is provided regarding the number of nominations received.
 - Write a letter to any member who is not nominated advising her and thanking her for her willingness to serve.

At Convention

- Bring the sealed copy of all nomination forms for reference and access by each president for her own diocese only.
- Hold a meeting during the provincial convention with the committee members and the spiritual advisor to review the nomination forms, verify the numbers and plan the election. The president-elect may be invited to attend this meeting with the understanding that all information is to be held in strict confidence.
- The chairperson shall conduct the election during the convention.
- Committee members will count and record the ballots for each position.
- The results of all ballots will be announced by the president, who remains in the chair during elections.
- When there is only one candidate for a position, the president will ask the voting delegates for a motion to acclaim that person.
- Prepare and make a motion that all ballots be destroyed.

- Following the convention, write to any unsuccessful candidate advising her of this fact if she was not in attendance and expressing appreciation for her commitment.

Directives

A directive is a communication from a provincial officer to her counterpart at the diocesan level. Directives should be researched, prepared with optional input from sub-chairpersons and sent three or four times per year.

Each sub-heading should be addressed at least once, providing a balanced overview of the committee or officer's position.

Once approved by the provincial president, directives are sent with all enclosures to the diocesan counterparts (or diocesan president if no counterpart). These directives may be sent by email, if all the resources are in electronic form and if the diocesan chairperson agrees, or mailed if enclosures are not in electronic form or the chairpersons do not want or are not able to receive them electronically. The list of diocesan counterparts is sent only to the diocesan counterparts.

Directives and enclosures are emailed to provincial executive, national counterpart and committee sub-chairpersons. Enclosures which are not in electronic form, will not be mailed to other than diocesan counterparts and sub-chairpersons, unless specifically requested.

A directive should accomplish one or more of the following:

- Direct, motivate and guide the work of the diocesan officers.
- Provide information about provincial initiatives.
- Suggest ways to implement initiatives in dioceses and parishes.
- Pass on current information relating to the office using committee headings listed in the Constitution & Bylaws.
- Include information from national communiqués.

The first directive, sent following the provincial convention should include:

- A letter of introduction, outline of your goals and objectives for your term, oral report from convention and a copy of the annual report from the annual report book. Send a list of your diocesan counterparts only to those named on the list – see P & P privacy table A1.6.2-02 (e).

The second directive, sent after national convention but before the fall meeting, should include:

- A copy of national officer's oral report or website address to retrieve these from the national website, pertinent information from the national convention, an update and new instructions and initiatives, resolution action plans (national and provincial) relevant to the officer's position.

The third directive, sent after the fall meeting but before the winter meeting, should include:

- An update, new instructions or follow-up on previous directions, further directions, if any, to national materials from fall mail out.

The fourth directive should be sent as necessary.

Directives should not be more than one page, both sides, unless approved by the president.

Directive Message:

- Use the headings that are listed in the Constitution & Bylaws. Try to cover one or more sub-headings in each directive so that you have a balanced coverage of all topics at least once per year or term.
- Give information with facts to back it up. Always verify your sources. Double check spelling of names, phone numbers and contact information.
- Suggest ways for the officers to use the information that you sent to them.
- Be specific about any action that you would like them to take.
- Welcome each newly elected or appointed officer by name in your directive.
- Offer to send the directive by regular mail.
- Invite them to contact you if they need assistance.
 - Do not include personal contact information.

ANNUAL REPORTS AND REPORT BOOK

Annual Reports

The president-elect shall select a committee to edit and proof-read the annual reports for the preparation of the annual report book.

Distribution of Annual Report Books

The annual report book will be available on the OPC website, minus the financials, one week prior to convention. A printed copy will be available on request on the convention registration form for $5.

The administrative assistant will prepare letters to accompany report books distributed.

Copies shall be sent electronically, hard copies by request, to:

- all bishops of Ontario
- general secretary of the ACBO
- provincial presidents
- past Ontario presidents not in attendance at the convention
- national office, national president, national president-elect
