OPC Convention 2014 Edition Resolutions Dialogue and Opening Ceremonies – July 6

We Have Seen the Lord

Resolutions Dialogue

Members gathered to review the two draft resolutions before they come to the floor for presentation, discussion and vote.

Chairpersons Rosanne Sogan and Linda Squarzolo began the session by walking the group through the resolutions process. This instruction allowed the various tables to then participate in animated discussion; better preparing them for presentation of the resolutions during the business session on Tuesday.

Opening Mass

The opening mass was celebrated at St. Michael the Archangel Church by the Most Reverend Bishop William McGrattan, Bishop of Peterborough. The Most Reverend Bishop Gerard Bergie, Ontario Provincial Council Spiritual Advisor and thirteen spiritual advisors from across the province concelebrated. The intentions were for all the living and deceased members of the Catholic Women's League in Ontario.

A beautifully spiritual way to open the convention!
