2. She is currently a League member in the province of Ontario?
3. A nomination form is being forwarded to provincial president by November 30.
4. A reference letter from nominee's parish priest is included.
5. At least one letter of recommendation, providing specific details of social justice engagement demonstrating criteria below is included.

Assessment Criteria

Provide two letters of reference from individuals most familiar with the nominees work as detailed below.

For each criterion, the nominations are assessed a value between 1 and 5 where the assessment describes documentation as:

- 1 not demonstrating criteria
- 2 some demonstration of criteria
- 3 demonstrating commitment to criteria expected of most League members
- 4 demonstrating commitment to criteria greater than expected of most League members
- 5 demonstrating commitment far exceeding any expectation for any League member

The reference letters must include specific details of her social justice engagement that use the words in the criteria above; for example, Jane Doe demonstrated excellent generosity in traveling to third world countries at great expense and giving of her time freely to share her nursing skills.

- a) social justice engagement at parish, community, regional, national, or international level
- b) demonstration of leadership in social justice engagement
- c) demonstration of generosity of spirit in social justice engagement
- d) extraordinary service in social justice engagement
- e) living a reflection of the mission of the League
