To replace Part XI, Section 4(c) with

In the event of a vacancy in the office of vice-president during her term, the secretary shall perform the duties of the vice-president until the next election. She shall not be appointed to the office of vice-president nor assume the office of president.

To replace Section 4(d) with:

In the event of a vacancy in the office of vice-president after an election is held, an “acting” vice-president may be appointed by the president in consultation with the executive and the spiritual advisor. The “acting” vice-president shall perform the duties of the vice-president until the next election. She shall not automatically move to the office of president at the time of the next election. She may be nominated and elected to the position of president as long as she meets the eligibility criteria and has not held the office of president on that council before.

To rename current Section 4(d) as Section 4(e) and replace with:

In the event of a vacancy in any other office than president or vice-president, a member shall be appointed by the president in consultation with the executive and the spiritual advisor and shall serve until the next election.
